POLICY OF SUICIDE

Important Ruling Made by Supreme Court of North Carolina.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Raleigh, N. C., April 16 .- In a list of eighteen appeals decided in a delivery of opinions by the Supreme Court this evening, one of special note is that of Kate L. Heilig vs. Insurance Company, from Rowan County, in which the court makes a per curlam husband of the plaintiff, notwithstanding the fact that he had committed suicide in the Western Hospital for the Insane within a year after the policy had been taken out, with the stipulation that death by suicide, whether same or insane, should relieve the company from the obligation to pay the insurance. The Succession of the stipulation of the suicide with the same of the suicide with insurance. The Supreme Court sustains the finding of the lower court that the insurance company was not liable for the insurance on account of the suicidal end of the insured.

to have Curtis Guild continue as ambassador at St. Petersburg until such time as Mr. Crane could arrange his business affairs in this country, has been somewhat disarranged by the application of Mr. Guild for leave of absence.

Ambassador Guild notified Secretary Bryan that his health was poor, and that it was imperative for him to have at least two months' leave. It was granted, but Secretary Bryan stated that he believed a successor would be chosen before the interval had elapsed.

Mr. Crane himself was at the White House to-day in conference with the President, but declined to discuss his visit. White house officials were equal. It is believed, however, that an effort will be made to ascertain whether Mr. Crane could not adjust his business affairs to go abroad earlier SATURDAY, APRIL 19, 1913, 3 P. M.,
